thrilling, powerful and picturesque feature was produced on a magnificent scale and has a wealth of beautiful photography. No expense has been spared to attain the rear atmosphere of this production. The company of players were sent to Alaska where they remained for several weeks and in many of the scenes scores of real miners were used for this production. The most strenuous and exciting fight ever pictured is shown in this picture, as well as a whole town dynamited, and an extraordinary volcanic earthquake. It is positively the most wonderful story ever filmed and has been shown in all the first class theatres shown in all the first class theatres of the large cities at advanced prices.

AT THE AUDITORIUM

Entire Change of Program Today

An entire change of bill will take place at the Auditorium today both in the musical comedy and picture program. Homan's Musical Comedy Co. will present The Elopers, a musi-cal comedy farce with special scenery, pretty electrical effects, etc., and new characters will be portrayed by Mr. O'Connell, Eddie Flavelle, Dorothy Dean and others and new song numbers, dances, etc., will replace those of the first two days.

On the picture program will be a George Ade comedy reel and the five-reel William Fox feature, Harry Hil-lard and June Caprice in Caprice of the Mountains. Caprice Talbert lives with her fa-

Dave, a mountaineer. Tim Ba-also of the mountains, is in love with Caprice. Taking for granted that his daughter will marry Tim, Dave proposes to Tim's sister, Maria, Nearby, James Edmunds, a venerable artist has a mountain retreat. He has become a warm friend of little Caprice. Maria and Dave, Caprice's father, are married. After repeated ill-treatment, Caprice decides to run away from home. On the road she meets a gay auto-On the road she meets a gay auto-mobile party, engineered by young Jack Edmunds, a grandson of the ar-tist. One of the men, named Deane, makes advances to her and is stopped by Jack. Mrs. Moraine, a woman of forty, makes a play for Jack. Disgust-ed, he decides to give up his old life forty, makes a play for Jack. Disgusted, he decides to give up his old life and go to his grandfather's mountain home. Tim, the mountaineer, tries to force his attentions upon Caprice. Terified, she attempts a second escape on the day that Jack arrives at his grandfather's home. Pressure is brought to bear and Caprice is about to be forced into a marriage with Tim. The right of the wedding arrives. Her The night of the wedding arrives. Her horror of the man she is about to marry becomes so intense that while the wedding guests are assembling in the rooms downstairs, she slips out of the house and with her beloved doll makes her way to Jack's. Her father and Tim, together with many of the men guests go to the bungalow, where they find Caprice asleep in the bed with her doll. A few minutes later, Jack comes in to face the angry mob. The unshat is that her fether casts. The upshot is that her father casts her off and places her in Jack's hands. Caprice writes Jack a letter, saying how sorry she is at having caused him so much trouble and tells him she is going away to live with her aunt. Caprice's father comes back to kill Jack. Together they discover Caprice's escape and a note. Jack takes Caprice to his father's house and is threatened with disinheritance. Jack marries Caprice. Unaccustomed to the ways of speciety she soon received to the the control of the control of the caprice. society she soon reverts to type, there-by causing Jack much humiliation. Jack 'hits it up' with his old set. When Jack is left in charge of his father's business, he goes to pieces-drinks and neglects his trust. Dean steps into the picture here and tries to play comforter to Caprice. But the warning old Edmunds had given her in the fairy story about the spirit of evil comes to her and she leaves the house. Jack telegraphs her father and his father. After many trials Jack finds her and his baby heir, and all is well.

SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if Kidneys feel lik lead or Bladder bothers you -Meat forms uric acid.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kid-neys clean, thus avoiding serious $1000 Down Secures 440 Acre Farm
